Wait times for cancer surgery are an increasingly urgent matter. In their research article, Kawakami and colleagues assess real-time surgical software to measure and examine surgical wait times at a single centre in Ontario. For more, see page 597.

Les délais d'attente pour subir une chirurgie en cas de cancer deviennent une question de plus en plus pressante. Dans leur article de recherche, Kawakami et ses collègues évaluent des logiciels de chirurgie en temps réel, afin de mesurer et d'examiner les délais d'attente chirurgicaux dans un seul centre en Ontario. Pour plus de détails, veuillez vous reporter à la page 597.
